Dr. Bailey's excellent and easy to read commentary on the Gospel of John gives insight into some of the most beautiful teachings of Christ to His disciples. You will discover the heart of God as you see Christ as the Good Shepherd who lays down His life for the sheep, and Christ as the Bread of Life who came down from Heaven that we might have life abundantly. May your hearts be filled with the riches and fullness of God as you study this most beloved of Gospels.

Jeremiah Zion Christian Publishers

By locating Christian Zionism firmly within the Evangelical tradition, Paul Wilkinson takes issue with those who have portrayed it as a "totally unbiblical menace" and as the "roadmap to Armageddon." Charting in detail its origins and historical development, he argues that Christian Zionism lays the biblical foundation for Israel's restoration and the return of Christ. No one has contributed more to this cause than its leading architect and patron, John

Nelson Darby, an "uncompromising champion for Christ's glory and God's truth."

This groundbreaking book challenges decades of misrepresentation and scholarship, exploding the myth that Darby stole the doctrine of the pre-tribulation Rapture from his contemporaries. By revealing the man and his message, Paul Wilkinson vindicates Darby and spotlights the imminent return of the Lord Jesus Christ as the centerpiece of his theology.

The Zionist Churches in Malawi Zion Christian Publishers

In his study of the Epistles of Peter, Dr. Caram discusses how one who was in the beginning, self-confident, rash, and impulsive, could be transformed to become the rock upon which Christ could build His church. As you read this book you will find essential keys to obtaining stability and strength in your walk with God so that your life will become a foundation upon which others can build.

Epistles of John Zion Christian Publishers

The Goodness and Severity of God succinctly portrays these two aspects of God's character and provides an excellent guide for attaining God's goodness and being spared from His severity. With the love of so many growing cold and deception abounding, it is vital that we be able to determine our standing on God's pathway of holiness, so that like Daniel, our life would be approved of the Lord and we would stand in our appointed place in heaven for all eternity.

Minor Prophets 2 Zion Christian Publishers

Dr. Paul Caram writes an inspirational commentary on the book of Acts, showing how it is a divine account of a new move of God. The Lord had come to give life to those who were new wine skins and built His church upon the foundation of the Apostles of the Lamb. Dr. Caram also describes how we as believers are to be a part of the move of God in establishing His Kingdom here on earth and how it is Christ's church that will do the "greater works" because He has gone to His Father and sent us His Holy Spirit.

Colossians and Philemon

As we are seeing End Time events begin to unfold before our eyes, we realize that never has there been such a need for restoration. God desires to restore the Church to the glory that she once knew before and cause her to become exceedingly glorious, without spot or wrinkle. In this book, Dr. Bailey brings to light the significance of the Restoration books of Ezra and Nehemiah, applying the truths contained in the historical restoration of Israel to the situation of the last day Church as well as to our personal lives.

The standard histories of Zionism have depicted it almost exclusively as a Jewish political movement, one in which Christians do not appear except as antagonists. In the highly original Zeal for Zion, Shalom Goldman makes the case for a wider and m

The Book of Jeremiah is a revelation of the heart and feelings of a tender, loving God reaching out to a backslidden people. Dr. Brian Bailey's commentary shows the Lord as the Potter who is forming us as clay upon His potter's wheel. We can be encouraged by the message of Jeremiah in that that the Lord desires to give hope to those who have become discouraged over their past mistakes by reforming them into a chosen vessel, made beautiful for the house of the Master.

The Gospel of Matthew

Zion Christian Publishers Formerly titled "Synoptic Gospels," Dr. Paul Caram's study of the gospels of Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John will enable the reader to comprehend the whole story of the gospels by masterfully weaving together the accounts of all of the gospel writers. You will see how seeming discrepancies and dissimilarities, when viewed together give an enlightening perspective of the life and teachings of Christ, so that every believer would not only know and understand the ways of God, but also follow in His steps as true disciples of our Lord Jesus. Colossians and Philemon is an easy reading verse by verse commentary on those most blessed New Testament letters of the Apostle Paul. Dr. Bailey emphasizes the vital message of following the way to holiness as seen in the epistle to the Colossians, as well as the message of restoration in that a slave becomes a brother in the epistle to Philemon. This book will be enjoyed by those who seek to find the true pathway to the presence of God and the place of restoration whereby we can be called the sons and daughters of God.

Goodness and Severity of God

Zion Christian Publishers

When Christ was asked questions He would often refer people back to the beginning, to the origin of the plan of our Heavenly Father for His creation. In his commentary on the book of Genesis, Dr. Bailey shows how it is vital to understand God's intentions from the beginning in order to understand God's plan for mankind as well as the many spiritual truths that relate to the life of the believer today.

The Old Testament message was one that man was never able to fulfill. However, Christ in His Sermon on the Mount gave a higher law to the New Testament Church. It is a message of grace and truth that enables mankind to triumph in all things. In his commentary on the Sermon on the Mount, Rev. Daniel Caram will give a clear and balanced explanation of Christ's higher law for the New Testament Church, so that we might be those saints who live a victorious and abundant life in Christ Jesus.

Discover an Historic Hidden Treasure in African American History With more than 30,000 interred in its 15 acres, Zion Cemetery is the largest African American community burial ground in Memphis. It was opened in 1876 by former slaves to establish a sacred burial ground for people of color. It is the final resting place of luminaries like Reverend Morris Henderson, who led the founding of the cemetery, and Dr. Georgia Patton Washington, Tennessee's first African American physician. Lynching victims Thomas Moss, Calvin McDowell and William Stewart rest there. The cemetery is also the final home of Thomas Franks Cassels and the grandparents of Dr. Benjamin Hooks. Dr. Peatchola Cole-Jones details the rich history and more.
Tabernacle of David Zion Christian Publishers

The Comforter is not simply another book on theology, but a very practical and useful guide for finding a pathway into the Spirit-filled and Spirit-led life. Those who desire to intimately know and experience the Holy Spirit will be blessed as they read Dr. Bailey's discussion of seven aspects of the Holy Spirit: The Person of the Holy Spirit The Ministry of the Holy Spirit The Seven Spirits of the Lord The Baptism of the Holy Spirit The Nine Gifts of the Spirit The Nine Fruits of the Spirit The Spirit-filled and Spirit-led Life

The Tabernacle of David, seemingly such an obscure topic in Scripture, has stirred much interest in recent years. In this exposition, the author will clearly show how this "veil-less" tent upon Mount Zion reveals the higher dimension of worship that our God seeks. David's Tabernacle not only reveals the higher worship of Mount Zion, but also the New Covenant standard. The veil-less tent housed the Ark of the Covenant, speaking of the veil that has been rent for us to enter into the very presence of God. This book will challenge you to be a "true worshiper!"

Minister's Manual Zion Christian Publishers
For those who long to be more than a conqueror, there is contained within the pages of this thought-provoking study a precious hope and assurance of what God is able to do in the lives of those who yield to Him. Dr. Bailey's commentary on the book of Romans will enable readers to discover the richness of this masterpiece of Biblical literature and deposit within our hearts a hope and assurance that this same gospel of Christ can be established within our lives in order to achieve the ultimate goal - Christ in us, the hope of glory.

Declaring the End from the Beginning Arcadia Publishing
We are our own worst enemy. Since the fall of mankind from his place in the Garden of Eden, man's greatest enemy has been his corrupted nature within his own heart. In his study on obtaining true victory over the self-centered life, Dr. Caram will show that the ultimate plan of God is to give us a new heart, free from the prison of the self-life. By putting on the mind of Christ, through humility and meekness, we can enter into the glorious liberty that is promised to the sons and daughters of God.

The author of Proverbs and Ecclesiastes, King Solomon, was said to be the wisest man in the world. Sadly, he did not walk in his own teachings. What was it that stopped one who was filled with God's wisdom from reaping its benefits? Dr. Bailey answers this question through his commentary on the books of Proverbs and Ecclesiastes, drawing upon his many years of experience in the ministry. He will show the lessons that can be learned from Solomon's life, as well as the blessings that come upon those who live according to the wisdom of God.

Genesis Zion Christian Publishers

Many Bible believing Christians are convinced that God blesses those nations that stand with Israel and curses those that don't. This belief has had a significant influence on attitudes towards the ongoing Palestinian-Israeli conflict in the Middle East. Claims made in books like the Scofield Reference Bible and Hal Lindsey's The Late Great Planet Earth have fed into contemporary Christian Zionism, with radical implications for how we view our faith and the world in which we live. Stephen Sizer contends that this view is based on misinterpretation of the Bible. He provides an introduction to Christian Zionism and a clear response and positive alternative based on a careful study of relevant biblical texts. His intention is to encourage dialogue on the relationship between Israel and the Christian church and offer a more constructive view of the future and our role in it. This accessible volume includes numerous tables and diagrams, questions for Bible study and further reflection, and a glossary of terms. It concludes with a previously unpublished sermon by John Stott on 'The Place of Israel.'

In this second volume on the Minor Prophets, Dr. Bailey discusses the books of Joel to Zephaniah. Through studying this beautiful exposition on each of these eight books, you will gain understanding of the historical events and the countless precious spiritual applications and prophetic utterances that apply to the church today. You will be challenged and encouraged to be one who is firmly established in His Word, with your feet set firmly upon His path so that you will be ready to meet the Lord at His glorious coming.
